

What Is God Like?

SERMON SUMMARY

This week we are focusing on Psalm 139 and exploring the nature of God. God is perceptive, present, powerful, purposeful, and pure. He knows everything about us, is always with us, and has a purpose for each of our lives. It's important to recognize God's omniscience, omnipresence, and omnipotence, and understand how these attributes can transform our lives. The message concluded with a call to invite God into our hearts, to search us, and to lead us in the way of everlasting life.

KEY VERSES

Psalm 139: 1-4; (NLT) "O Lord, you have examined my heart and know everything about me. <sup>2</sup>You know when I sit down or stand up. You know my thoughts even when I'm far away. <sup>3</sup>You see me when I travel and when I rest at home. You know everything I do. <sup>4</sup>You know what I am going to say even before I say it, Lord." Additional verses: Psalm 139:13-19; 23-24

Jeremiah 9:23-24 (NLT) - "This is what the Lord says: 'Don't let the wise boast in their wisdom, or the powerful boast in their power, or the rich boast in their riches. <sup>24</sup>But those who wish to boast should boast in this alone: that they truly know me and understand that I am the Lord who demonstrates unfailing love and who brings justice and righteousness to the earth, and that I delight in these things. I, the Lord, have spoken!'"

LIFE APPLICATION

This week, take time each day to invite God to search your heart and reveal any areas that need change. Write down what He reveals to you and pray for His guidance and strength to make those changes. Remember that God is omniscient and knows everything about us. He is omnipresent and is always with us. He is omnipotent and has the power to do anything. God has a purpose for each of our lives. God is pure and holy, and we should strive to align our lives with His will.
